Future nurse finishes high school

By: Morgan Kleinsasser

Eighteen years ago on January 19, 1992 Kristen Joy Schouten entered this world in the Huron Regional Medical Center. She was the third child born to Terry and Stephanie Schouten. There are six people in her family today. Her siblings are Jonathon, Kelly, and Heather. An early childhood memory was when she and Ryan Glanzer were at Peggy Kleinsasser's house. They thought it would be fun to dial 911 and hang up. Unfortunately, the police drove all the way to Peggy's house, and they didn't find the call too amusing. Kristen plans on working and saving up money for college this summer. Her future plans include attending Dordt in the fall and majoring in nursing.

Courtney Cathryn Svennes was born on November 11, 1991 and then was adopted by Brad and Judy Svennes eleven days after she was born. Courtney said she enjoyed acting in the one-act play in both her junior and senior year here at James Valley. Courtney was also a cheerleader here. When asked, she said her greatest experience at JVCS was being able to win the Spirit of Six award for cheerleading. After she is completely done with high school, she plans on working at Montgomery Real Estate Agency in Huron as a secretary. She also plans on settling down with Stephen, her fiancé.

Psalm 84:10 is Allison's favorite verse. It says, "Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked." Allison will graduate from JVCS at the age of seventeen. She plans on attending SDSU.

However, she loves the restaurant HuHot and funnel cakes. Her favorite class at school is Accounting I with Mr. Schouten, and koala bears and birds are her favorite animals.

Samuel fishes

By: Tanner Landstrom

Samuel John Knight was born on March 19, 1992 in Huron, SD. Samuel is a senior at JVCS this year. His favorite class was Personal Finance, which he took in eleventh grade. One of Samuel's favorite memories is of going fishing on the last day of school with Brandon Waldner and Samantha Kleinsasser. When he's not trying to catch fish, Samuel can be found chowing down on some chicken. Looking for a good read, Samuel might look to the Bible and read his favorite verse, II Timothy 4:7. Samuel plans to attend SDSU next fall and major in psychology.
